THINK
LIKE A GROWTH MINDSET TEACHER

WITH
JAMES ANDERSON
CERTIFIED GROWTH MINDSET TRAINER
This powerful two-day master class will equip you and your team with a deep, practical understanding of Mindsets and the tools to successfully implement these ideas, at both the classroom and school level.

OVER THESE TWO DAYS, YOU WILL:

EXPLORE THE FALSE MINDSET
Understand the Greatness Gap and why we are sometimes not as consistent at communicating a Growth Mindset as we would hope and what to do about this.

AVOID COMMON MISUNDERSTANDINGS AND MISSTEPS
Ensure your approach to Mindsets is successful and sustainable by exploring what we’ve learnt about recognising and avoiding many of the common misunderstandings and missteps.

DISCOVER NEW INSIGHTS
Go beyond “not yet” and praising effort to discover powerful and practical new ways for developing robust and enduring growth oriented mindsets in students.

UNDERSTAND THE WORLD OF THE FIXED MINDSET
Students with a fixed mindset are not lazy. Understanding that the actions of a fixed mindset student makes perfect sense to them is at the heart of unlocking strategies to develop a stronger growth - orientation.

ENGAGE WITH EFFECTIVE EFFORT
Discover how to teach students to engage in effective effort more often, as well as how to recognise and value its application in feedback and assessment.

THINK LIKE A GROWTH MINDSET TEACHER
Learn how to employ powerful classroom strategies and Habits of Mind that value the process of learning and develop a more growth-oriented mindset in students.

BUILD A GROWTH MINDSET SCHOOL
Discover the elements of a Growth Mindset School and how to address common school-wide practices that may unintentionally reinforce a fixed mindset.
WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

The Master Class is intended for classroom teachers (K-12) and school leaders with responsibility for leading or coaching teacher practice.

Schools are encouraged to send teams to benefit from the different perspectives and shared responsibilities in leading this work back at the school.

ABOUT JAMES ANDERSON

James Anderson is the only independent consultant to be fully certified as a Growth Mindset Trainer by Mindset Works (co-founded by Carol Dweck).

He is an expert in helping school leaders transfer Mindsets out of the research context, into powerful, practical and actionable school and classroom strategies.

As an educational consultant James has over 15 years experience leading school change.

He is the owner and director of Mindful by Design, an affiliate director of Art Costa and Bena Kallick's Institute for Habits of Mind, author of Succeeding with Habits of Mind and founder and creator of www.habitsofmind.org.
